May 2022

Try to call God the Mother, and you may feel awkward. In fact, God is beyond gender, neither male nor female, but we have traditionally called God Heavenly Father. I think that if God is expressed with the metaphor father, it must also be possible to describe God as the metaphor mother.

I sometimes feel God is like my father, who emphasized the discipline of his children, and other times God is like my mother, who was generous toward her children.

However, each of us has different experiences of our parents. For example, those who had been abused by their fathers/mothers may not have good feelings as they call God the Father/Mother. Therefore, it is not right to say, “This is the only way to call God.”

I am not saying that all of us should call God the Mother, but that we may use any metaphor based on our own experiences. I often feel the Holy Spirit, the Sustainer, like my mother, who was quiet and patient, who was gentle but strong inside, and who was not spectacular but wise. In addition, she was always with me, especially when I was in difficulties. So, I call the Holy Spirit God the Mother, while I say God the Father the Creator and God the Son the Redeemer. As we celebrate Mother’s Day, I wanted to recognize the mothering God.

Because of scientific and technological advances, we live a convenient life, but we have lost a lot of precious things, as well. One of them is the intimate relationship with our parents. We used to be faithful to the Bible verses, like “Honor your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the LORD your God is giving you” (Exodus 20:12) or “Children, obey your parents in everything, for this is pleasing to the Lord” (Colossians 3:20).

I would like to remind you that you may not have much time to be with your mother. Time goes fast, and when you want to treat her well, you may not see her again in the world. It may be too late when you realize that your mom has passed away. And if your mother has already died, recall what she said to you, and what she wanted you to do. And remember her instructions in your life and tell your children about her. Your mother will be resurrected through your life and your children’s lives.

As we celebrate Mother’s Day on May 8th, let us express our gratitude to our mothers: Thank you, mom! You are great! Happy Mothers’ Day!

Wednesday Group Study

April 27th our study returned with Chapter 17 of “BELIEVE” by Randy Frazee led by Rev. Cynthia Dodd. In May we continue the study of ten key beliefs, ten key practices and ten key virtues of Christianity grounded in artfully selected scripture passages.

BELIEVE is a spiritual growth experience that takes you on a journey to think, act, and become more like Jesus. The Bible is more than just a book of stories. It’s a blueprint for living. Everyone is welcome to come and enjoy great discussion and fellowship.

We appreciate your continued support!

Remember you would be spending money at these stores anyway and now the church can receive a percentage. Share with your family and friends this opportunity.

Adult Monday School Class

Class meets via Zoom each Monday evening from 7:00 p.m. to 7:45 p.m. (Check the church web site or e-mail announcements for the link.) We have enthusiastic, energetic, and enlightening discussions on topics designed to help us use our Christian faith in dealing with the challenges daily life brings. We are currently studying a four-part series on the parables of Jesus by the renowned pastor and author James W. Moore. We are currently studying the fourth book in the series Jesus' Parables About Making Choices. The topics studied in this book are "Choosing to Grow Up", "Choosing to be Humble", "Choosing to Listen", "Choosing to Help", "Choosing to Try" and "Choosing to Prepare". The class is open to anyone over the age of 0 and under the age of 275 that would like to join us. If you would like a copy of our study book or would like more information, please contact Thurmon Whitley.

We look forward to seeing you.

FROM THE LAYLEADER

The leadership committee met on April 19th. To simplify attending Zoom meetings, we will use the link below for all meetings. The only exceptions will be for SPR committee, Committee on Nominations and Leadership Development and Children's Sunday School - these will have their own individual Zoom link.

So, from now on we will use this link below for Worship services, Bible Study, Adult Monday School and all meetings except for those mentioned above.

Koinonia Café is now in-person, not on Zoom on Thursdays from 10:00am-12pm

Lastly, as you know, our pastor, Sungmu Lee, is being appointed to a different church starting on July 1st of this year. This is totally unexpected. I hoped that we would be contacted before Easter as to who we would be getting as a pastor. I contacted the District Superintendent after Easter and asked why we had not heard who is going to be our pastor. As of this writing (4/20/2022), I have been told that we will have a pastor but there are no further details.

This is frustrating for not only me but also, I know it is frustrating for you. We need to remember the scripture from Romans 8:28 “And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose.”

When we hear anything new, we will definitely let you know. Any questions, please contact me at 203-444-2362 (text or call) or drsmith@snet.net

Please mark your calendar for a special “Thank you for your Service” luncheon after church on June 5th to thank Sungmu and Hyeonjin for all they have done to strengthen and lead our church for the past 8 years.

If you would like to help out in any area, training is provided. Contact Helen Smith if you wish to share your talent and/or learn a new skill to help the mission and ministry of First & Wesley!
